GLENDALÉ'S LINE UP OF SUMMER ACTIVITIES, PROGRAMS AND EVENTS NOW AVAILABLE

Glendale, Ariz. — Summer can be a fun and productive season with swimming lessons, softball leagues, youth summer recreation programs, fitness programs, cooking workshops and more than 120 different adult and youth classes available. To find all the options, check out the Glendale Parks, Recreation & Library Services summer 2013 Activities Guide.

Special interest activities and classes offered appeal to a wide range of ages for adults, youth and teens in the areas of sports and fitness, dance, culinary arts, personal development, cultural arts and music. Most classes are held at the Foothills Recreation & Aquatics Center, 5600 W. Union Hills Dr. and begin in June. Class times, dates and prices vary.

Leagues in racquetball, softball and points-based poker will be held along with other sports-related classes.

Children out of school can participate in full- or partial-day summer programs and camps.

Summer events highlighted include Tips for Surviving the Summer, a safety event, on June 21, the Foothills Family Swim Night on June 22 and Stars and Stripes – A Patriotic Celebration on July 3.

Details for all the summer activities are listed in the Activities Guide. Pick up a copy at the Glendale libraries or recreation centers or visit www.glendaleaz.com/parksandrecreation and click on the Activities Guide link.
